

BIO

Dynasty is an Artist and Entertainer from a small community in Folsom, La.

Musically her work includes elements from R&B, Hip-Hop, Jazz, Funk, and Soul. Dynasty's style is influenced by great artist like Erykah Badu, Al Green, Toni Braxton, Lauryn Hill, Nina Simone, and many others.

Dynasty's platform consist of several components, but it is primarily based on black women considering themselves as Queens who should be upheld in the highest regard.

Dynasty is very vocal about the treatment of black women in our communities and firmly believes that the condition of the black woman must change, in order for real change in our communities to come about.

Dynasty frequently uses the hash tag: #QueensOnlyNoBadBitches, which is used to reinforce the ideology that we must dismiss the "Bad Bitch" culture, and reinvent ourselves as the Queens we were always meant to be.

Dynasty's first major project will be released in early 2017. It promises to be a clever fusion of many different elements and genres. Dynasty will also be releasing mix-tapes and exclusive works via social media
